

The Minister of the Israeli Ministry of Environmental Protection, MK Gilad Erdan, awarded Amiad Water Systems for being one of the first 44 companies in Israel to voluntarily report its Greenhouse Gas emissions according to the Israeli Environmental Protection standards.

The award was presented by Ms. Alona Sheaffer Karo, Adv., the Director General of The Israeli Ministry of Environmental Protection and Mr. Asher Grinbaum the Chairman of the Chemical, Pharmaceutical and Environmental Society, Manufacturer Assosiation of Israel to Mr. Shachar Schoukroun, V.P. Quality Assurance & Mr. Jonathan Kogan, Environmental Manager, both of Amiad Water Systems.

